

Personal Responsibility Assignment

In a short essay, answer the following questions about your performance in this course.

Be sure to answer each question fully to get credit (Aim for 250 words each).

Answers must be in fully developed paragraphs that thoroughly addresses the question.

Students will need to submit a file. The file must have the students full name (as it appears on the Portal), the students ID number, and the capital letters PR at the end. For example, "First Last 0123456 PR".

Cut and paste the following to your MS Word document and provide a response where indicated.

Personal Responsibility

1. Describe a topic you have explored in depth in this course and include little-known information you have discovered to support your intense interest in the subject.
2. Describe the ways that you have taken initiative this semester to complete course work, generate and pursue opportunities to expand your knowledge, skills, and abilities in this field. (Consider attendance, class participation, meeting deadlines as indicators of this)

3. Describe connections you have made between your prior knowledge and what you have learned in this course. How has this course helped you to understand the ideas in new or different ways?

4. How has your learning inside and outside of the classroom changed your perspective about experiences you have in school and life in general? In what ways do these changes show your own growth or maturity over time?
